Readers' RESPONSE

Thanks for your good articles in the Evangel. I was looking through some back numbers, re-reading some of your editorials. I can say I agree with you in every one. They are good wholesome food for the soul. I won't make mention of every article, but I must refer to one in particular, "If I Were a Young Convert." I don't know who of all Church of God members read the Evangel, but every man, woman, boy, and girl should read that editorial. I'm sure the Lord has directed it. Why don't they take warning? Lord, help us all.

I have enjoyed the Evangel so much of late; it seems we've had the best editorials and articles we've ever had. I believe if you would use some of your editorials and some of the other choice articles in tract form they would keep on doing good to more people for a longer period of time. I think Brother Paulk's and Brother Gause' articles on "Worldliness" were timely and needed. Brother Lavene Walker's articles on "Moses" were masterpieces; Brother Britt's were really good; Brother Pitts' and Brother Tharp's on "Revival" and some others would be good in tract form. The printed page is one of our best weapons in this warfare for God.

This is to express heartwarming appreciation for the issue of April 28; perhaps I never read a better one.

Doctrine like Brother Paulk's "BE NOT CONFORMED TO THIS WORLD" preached, written, practiced and lived, will bring the revival that we have all preached, prayed for and longed for so earnestly.

Revival is not something that can be bought or called down at will. Revival is an automatic thing—the effect of certain causes.

May there be more issues like this one.

DECLARATION OF FAITH

WE BELIEVE

In the verbal inspiration of the Bible. 2. In one God eternally existing in three persons; namely, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. That Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of the Father, conceived of the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary. That Jesus was crucified, buried, and raised from the dead; that He ascended to heaven and is today at the right hand of the Father as the Intercessor. 4. That all have sinned and come short of the glory of God, and that repentance is the manner of life for all and necessary for forgiveness of sins. 5. That justification, regeneration, and the new birth are wrought by faith in the blood of Jesus Christ. 6. In sanctification subsequent to the new birth, through faith in the blood of Christ; through the Word, and by the Holy Ghost. 7. Holiness to be God's standard of living for His people. 8. In the baptism of the Holy Ghost, subsequent to a clean heart. 9. In speaking forth the truth, and its use in the world. 10. And that it is the initial evidence of the baptism of the Holy Ghost. 10. In water baptism by immersion, and all who repent should be baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. 11. Divine healing is provided for all in the atonement. 12. In the Lord's Supper and washing of the saints' feet. 13. In the premillennial second coming of Jesus. First, to resurrect the righteous dead, and to reign on the earth a thousand years. 14. In the bodily resurrection; eternal life for the righteous and eternal punishment for the wicked.

Give Yourself to God

THE STORY IS TOLD of a missionary service in Scotland, which was attended by a young Scotch lad who was one day to become one of Christianity's greater heroes. When the plates were passed for the offering the young lad was grieved because he had nothing to give for missions. As the usher passed him he asked the man to place the plate on the floor. Surprised at something so unusual, the usher did as the lad requested; then the boy stepped into the offering plate with his bare feet and said with heart-warming sincerity "I'll give myself; I have nothing else to give." His gift stuck—he actually did give himself to God and the ministry of foreign missions, for that boy was Robert Moffatt, the one who did so much to bring Africa to God.

While we may not give ourselves to God in such a dramatic and spectacular manner, we still have the opportunity of giving ourselves to Him. Robert Moffatt was not looking for something from God, but was crushed because he had nothing to give to God. His hurt was not that God had given him so little, but that he had so little to give God. Robert Moffatt was not looking for something for himself, but was looking for something in himself to give to God. When we spend so much time looking to God for gifts we may easily forget that God would like a gift from us; He has lavishly bestowed His gifts upon us already. You can scarcely read a chapter in the Bible without finding mention of something God has given to the human race. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16); "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28); "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom" (Luke 12:32); "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid" (John 14:27); "And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you" (Luke 11:9). In fact, God has given so much to the human race that James was inspired to say, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning" (James 1:17).

If God has so lavishly bestowed His gifts upon us, then the cry of our hearts should be the cry of David, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?" (Psalms 116:12). David said that he would

(1) take the cup of salvation; (2) call upon the name of the Lord; (3) pay his vows unto the Lord in the presence of the Lord's people. What will you give God for all His benefits?

It would be well for us to note all the things we can give to God. First, we should present ourselves to Him. "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service" (Romans 12:1). Some have made the mistake of trying to give service or honor to Christ without first giving themselves to Him. The first gift you can give to the Almighty is your own life. To say you love Him and yet withhold your life from Him is to misunderstand the nature of love. To attempt to labor for Him without first giving yourself to Him is to ignore the necessity of His grace. The gift of yourself comes first, and it is not until you have given yourself that you can give Him anything else.

Give your talent to Christ. If you are gifted in music, then consecrate that music to Him; if you play, play for God. If you are talented in singing, then give your singing to God. If you really play and sing to the glory of God it will not matter much to you whether or not you receive wide recognition and the praise of men, but only that your music and songs be acceptable to God and helpful to man. If your talent is writing, or art, or oratory, then consecrate it to Him. After all, it was God who gave your talent to you, and should not you return to Him its results and expression?

Give your time to God. Even though it is not possible for you to give every minute of your time to Christian service, much good for Christ can be done in the time most people squander each week. In most lives, even Christian lives, time spent for God and time spent for secular things are vastly out of balance. The time you spend in trivial and impractical pursuits should by all means be converted into time spent for God. And even out of necessary activities and profitably-spent time we should take enough time to worship and honor God with prayer, meditations, Bible reading, and church attendance.

We may have spent much time in the past looking for gifts from others and considering our gifts from God, but let us change it slightly now by considering what things we can give to God. Perhaps we will not give ourselves to Him in the unusual and dramatic way that Robert Moffatt did, but we can give ourselves and our all to Him with equal freeness and sincerity.

The 1958 seniors paid special tribute to the valedictorians and salutatorians of the five divisions of Lee College in a special program which was held in the auditorium, Sunday, May 18, at 7:45 p.m.

The program featured addresses by the valedictorians and salutatorians. Speakers were: Tannis Alford, High School salutatorian; Myrna McSwain, High School valedictorian; Mrs. Marylene Baird, Junior College salutatorian; Ollie J. Lee, Junior College valedictorian; Jimmy Bilbo, Liberal Arts College salutatorian; Adrien Baird, Liberal Arts College valedictorian; William Jones, Religious Education valedictorian and John Whitaker, Bible College valedictorian.

The program was opened with prayer by the Reverend R. L. Platt, Lee College President, and Scripture reading by the Reverend James A. Stephens, overseer of the Churches of God in Indiana and member of the Lee College Board of Directors. The College Campus Choir sang, "O Mighty God, How Great Thou Art" and "He Lives." Sabord Woods, Junior College freshman, played a piano solo.

Following the excellent speeches by the valedictorians and salutatorians, the Reverend John L. Byrd, overseer of the Churches of God in Alabama and chairman of the Lee College Board of Directors, gave the benediction.

PROMOTIONAL DINNER—Donald S. Aultman, president of the Lee College Alumni Association, explains plans of the organization to state alumni chapter officers at a promotional dinner held on the eve of the greatest ALUMNI DAY celebration to date. On President Aultman's right is Mrs. JOAnn Humbertson, Recording Secretary, who deserves the credit for the increased contact between the national office and the alumni on the field.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

The Lee College graduates were greatly blessed by the inspiring baccalaureate sermon delivered to them Sunday, May 18, 3:30 p.m., by the Reverend A. M. Phillips, overseer of the Churches of God in Florida.

The Reverend Houston R. Morehead, General Overseer of the Church of God, gave the invocation for the thirty-seventh Lee College baccalaureate service. The congregation sang, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" and "A Mighty Fortress." The Reverend Lewis J. Willis, Editor of the Lighted Pathway and member of the Lee College Board of Directors, read the scripture lesson. The Girls' Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Martha Vorster, sang "A Perfect Day" and "Lead Me, Oh Lord." The benediction was given by the Reverend John L. Byrd, overseer of the Churches of God in Alabama and chairman of the Lee College Board of Directors.

SENIOR PLAY

"One Foot in Heaven" is the title of the three-act drama which was presented by the Lee College Seniors on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, May 20 and 21, under the direction of A. W. Delk and Clifford Dennison.

The action of the play took place in the living room of the antiquated Laketon church parsonage. The play was the story of the experiences of the Spence family. The date was 1920. The Reverend William H. Spence was played by Bob O'Bannon, of Fort Myers, Fla. Sue Carrol Posey, of Detroit, Mich., played the part of Hope Spence, wife of the Reverend Spence. Other members of the play cast were Roland Herndon, Nona Alderman, Ronald Free, Eulene Sweat, Cecil Sears, Cathy Blocker, Virginia Echols, Jackie Metler, Wendell Ford, Darothy Odom, Delores Puett, Pat Griffin, Wanda Nelson, David Kell, David Cavin, and Marcus Sizemore.—Robert Humbertson, reporter

MUSIC CONCERT

At eight o'clock Thursday evening, May 22, the college auditorium was the scene of the annual Spring Concert presented by the Lee College School of Music under the direction of A. T. Humphries. The program featured the college band, the campus choir, the men's chorus, the ladies' chorus and a brass quintet. Among the songs rendered by the various choirs were: "Look and Live," "Rock of Ages," "I Will Pilot Thee," and "Now I Belong to Jesus." The concert was a great inspiration to all who attended it, and the music department was pleased with the response from the audience.

The second annual full-fledged ALUMNI DAY at Lee College saw in attendance former students from many states and a number of foreign countries and from classes as far back as 1919. All of these 'ole-timers' returned to their alma mater to participate in the celebration of the fortieth birthday of this Church of God educational institution.

The festivities began with a pre-ALUMNI DAY promotional dinner which was attended by the national and state chapter alumni officers. Reports were made on projects under way in the various states and plans were discussed for the continued progress of the Association. Under the aggressive leadership of Donald S. Aultman, president; Bennie Triplett, vice-president; Zeno C. Tharp, Jr., and James Stephens, board members, and the many capable state chapter officials, the revitalized Alumni Association has begun to make more progressive strides than ever before in its history. A revised constitution, better contact with the newly chartered state chapters, annual awards, a student loan fund, and the publication of the Lee Alumnus

Alumni Association Celebrates School's Fortieth Anniversary

SENIOR BREAKFAST—ALUMNI DAY activities began with a breakfast for all graduating seniors, who were welcomed in to the Alumni Association by President Aultman. The breakfast was served to these new members of the Alumni Association by members of the Lee College faculty, one of whom, Mrs. Avis Swiger, in whose honor the AVIS SWIGER STUDENT LOAN FUND is being established, can be seen in the background taking an order.

REGISTRATION OF VISITING ALUMNI—Miss Joy Hodges acts as hostess in the Old Main dining parlor where visiting alumni registered and where members of the 1940-49 classes had a get-together with coffee and doughnuts as refreshments. Shown registering is Floyd D. Carey, Jr., who received the award as Alumnus of the Year. Behind him are Lewis Stover and Edward Shoupe. L. E. Heil, missionary on furlough from Japan, is in the background.

are examples of recent accomplishments of the organization.

The 1958 ALUMNI DAY, based on the theme "FORTY YEARS FORWARD," began with the senior breakfast and initiation of graduates into the Alumni Association. This was followed by the registration of visiting alumni and a reunion of the "40-49'ers" in the Old Main dining parlor. At 10:00 a.m. the annual assembly was convened in the auditorium, an assembly which was marked by one of the best attended and most effective business meetings since the inception of the Association in 1946.

The day's activities were climaxed by a packed-out banquet at which the Reverend F. W. Goff, overseer of Illinois, gave an inspiring address. He emphasized the urgent need of a greater concern for the welfare of Church of God youth. State chapter officers were introduced; honorary members (Edith Mooney, Hollis Gause, and Stanley Butler) were welcomed into the Association; the alumnus from the oldest class (the Reverend Paul H. Walker, 1919) was recognized; and awards were given to Floyd D. Carey, Jr., as Alumnnus of the Year, and to the North Carolina alumni chapter, as the State Chapter of the Year.

The highlight of the banquet was the announcement by President Aultman of the establishment of the AVIS SWIGER STUDENT LOAN FUND. Monies from this fund will be available as loans to assist needy and worthy students who are attending Lee. The interest rate on the loans will be three per cent and the students will be given two years after leaving Lee College in which to repay the loan.

This fund is in honor of Mrs. Avis Swiger who in September will begin her twenty-fifth year with the school. She was present at the banquet and received an ovation, the likes of which are seldom seen. Pledges and donations amounting to over sixteen hundred dollars were made during the banquet—a great tribute to this beloved teacher of God's Word who has contributed immeasurably to the spiritual welfare of so very many boys and girls who have passed through the portals of BTS and Lee College.—Charles R. Beach, reporter.

WONDERFUL WORDS OF LIFE

(Based on the Sayings of Jesus)

Monday, August 11

✓ Scripture, Mark 4:19

The cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things; these are Satan's big three. He uses them to choke the Christian's life into unfruitfulness. To remain unfruitful means to be cut off as we are no longer useful in God's vineyard. The strategy of Satan is not to destroy by one big blow but to apply gradually an undiscerned pressure through these media to sap the Christian's spiritual strength away.

Pray for the leaders of our nation.

✓ Tuesday, August 12

Scripture, Mark 8:35

What a strange paradox! To save our lives we must lose them. We must lose them in the services of Christ and for others. If we seek to save it by selfishly keeping it to ourselves, we lose it in spite of ourselves. There is a great lesson in the little candle. It literally burns itself up for others.

Pray for the national leaders of our church.

Wednesday, August 13

✓ Scripture, Mark 3:35

This Scripture speaks of relationship. Not a relationship based on genealogies but upon spiritual activities. Acting, believing, living, doing the will of the heavenly Father. The Bible is a book of "do." We must be active, but only as our action relates to the will of God. All other action becomes dry and formal. Christ is glad to claim the doers of the will of God as His brother, sister or mother.

Pray for the state leaders of our church.

✓ Thursday, August 14

Scripture, Luke 12:32

The Shepherd takes great pride in His flock. It is a little flock but indeed it is precious because it is small and select. Only those qualified can belong to this select group. They are outnumbered but not out-blessed. The Shepherd has future plans for His "little flock." "Fear not," He says; "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."

Pray for all the pastors in the Church of God.

Friday, August 15

✓ Scripture, John 7:37

To a thirsty man nothing is more welcome than an invitation to drink. Man is created with an inner thirst. Because he fails to recognize this as a spiritual thing, he vainly tries to quench it with physical or material pleasures. Health, wealth or even worldly happiness cannot fill this vacancy. There is still that lack and longing. Only when we drink of the "living water from heaven" can we actually feel satisfied.

Pray for all the evangelists in the Church of God.

✓ Saturday, August 16

Scripture, Mark 5:36

"Only believe." One of the briefest of the words of Jesus but one of the most comforting.

Are you assailed with fears? Only believe.

Are you tormented with doubts? Only believe.

Are you pained with disease? Only believe.

However impossible your situation; only believe.

To the believing soul is furnished sufficient grace—grace for the present, grace to live by. Dying grace will be given when the dying hour comes.

Pray for all the laity of the Church of God.

Results of the 1958 Publishing House Contest

California has best all-round performance

Ralph E. Williams

Paul L. Walker

Eight state overseers and seven state Sunday School and youth directors won prizes in the Publishing House contest which began on November 1, 1957 and concluded on May 15, 1958.

The best all-round contest performance was made by Reverend Ralph E. Williams and Paul L. Walker of California-Nevada. They not only qualified in all four divisions of the contest, but they won the grand prize in their group by compiling a 140.1% of combined goals.

Other grand prize winners were Reverend James Stephens and Reverend E. M. Abbott, Indiana; Reverend Estel D. Moore and Paul Hocker, Washington-Oregon; Reverend Grady L. Waters and Mrs. Grady Waters, Iowa; and Reverend C. W. Batson of Wyoming. (Batson serves as state overseer and director.)

Qualifying awards for reaching contest goals were presented to Reverend C. W. Collins and Reverend Joe Bailey, Northwest Texas; Reverend B. E. Ellis and Reverend Christopher Moree, Missouri; and Reverend W. J. Brown and Reverend B. F. Norris, Wisconsin-Minnesota.

South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Maryland-Delaware-D.C. and the New England States did well in some areas; however, they fell short of the necessary points to qualify.

The goals for the nation-wide Publishing House contest were 1 Evangel, 1 Lighted Pathway subscription and 1 copy of Echoes of Calvary song book (1958 edition) for each three members of the Church of God in each state plus one new Pathway Book Club member for each two churches in each state.

The accumulated results of the Publishing House contest were 21,681 Evangel subscriptions, 1,439 new Pathway Book Club members, 39,825 copies of Echoes of Calvary and the Lighted Pathway circulation was boosted to 38,065. (These are approximate figures.)

The goals of the Publishing House contest were 49,637 Evangel subscriptions, 49,637 Lighted Pathway subscriptions, 49,637 copies of Echoes of Calvary and 1,438 new Pathway Book Club members. Only the Pathway Book Club goal was attained.
